To protect against cancellation charges, Travel Insurance (cancellation, health, luggage, etc.) is strongly recommended (see below).

TRAVEL INSURANCE (optional)

Trip Cancellation coverage begins when you submit your insurance application and insurance premium directly to the Insurance Company. (You may call Travel Ways to purchase your insurance from the Insurance Company). Most insurance Companies require that you pay the premium within two week of your deposit to be covered for any pre-existing illnesses. Other coverage begins at the point and time of tour departure. Coverage continues for the duration of your tour or as specified with you particular plan. Details of benefits and exceptions/limitations of coverage are specified in the Travel Insurance brochure with will be mailed at your request on tour application. These facts about the plan should be read carefully. Premiums are based on the amount of coverage you want and your age. If Trip Cancellation Insurance has been declined, please check "NO" on "Tour Registration Form" and the cancellation of a tour is subject to the cancellations fees outlined above under Cancellations/Refunds.

AIR TRANSPORTATION
