

EAST COAST FALL FOLIAGE
October 4, 2011 (18 Days)

The autumn season is probably the best time to visit the East Coast. Visit the "Big Apple", New York and historic Boston. See Fall colors in New Hampshire and other places on this itinerary plus other important and well-known destinations like New York, Boston, Montreal, Toronto, Niagara Falls and Washington D.C. For the past 15 years escort Mr. Jay Fung have been taking this tour, he is very experienced and knowledgeable of the areas we visit.

HONOLULU - NEW YORK

Day 1, October 3, Monday

Leave Honolulu enroute to New York via Delta Airlines.

NEW YORK

Day 2, October 4, Tuesday

Arrive in New York and transfer to midtown Manhattan. Meet your city guide and take a tour of New York from midtown through Times Square, the garment district, Herald Square, Madison Square Gardens, Greenwich Village, then to the Bowery and Chinatown, through the Civic Center, into the busy financial and maritime districts. Board the Liberty ferry across the busy Upper Bay to Liberty Island and view the Statue of Liberty and New York's magnificent harbor. Return via the East side, the United Nations Building, Park Avenue, and the Rockefeller Center. Late afternoon check-in at the Holiday Inn or similar for two nights.

NEW YORK

Day 3, October 5, Wednesday

Free day in New York. Tickets for Broadway Shows can be made in advance.

NEW YORK - BOSTON

Day 4, October 6, Thursday

Take the Connecticut Turnpike past New Haven of Yale University fame and through the rich green countryside of New England to the aristocratic capital of Massachusetts. Overnight at the Boston Marriott Burlington.

BOSTON - LITTLETON

Day 5, October 7, Friday

This morning travel north to the aristocratic capital of Massachusetts. Boston's numerous landmarks reflected the important part the city played in the history of the U.S. Many of these sights are included on your sightseeing tour: Faneuil Hall, Old North Church (where Paul Revere signalled the departure of British troops), and a replica of the Tea Party Ship in Boston Harbor. Afternoon, motor northwards to the White Mountains in New Hampshire. Spend two nights in Littleton at the Comfort Inn or similar.

FRANCONIA NOTCH & BRETTON WOODS

Day 6, October 8, Saturday

Today, we are in the heart of the vacationland which is dressed in the vibrant colors during the fall. Tour the area to view the waterfalls and the natural gorge at the Flume Chasm; the profile of the Old Man of the Mountain, a craggy likeness of a man's face; and to Bretton Woods, located in the heart of the White Mountains, where in 1944 the World Monetary Fund Conference established the gold standard, with Mt. Washington in sight, the highest point in Northeastern U.S. We return to our country inn via North Conway, heart of Mt. Washington Valley.

LITTLETON - MONTREAL

Day 7, October 9, Sunday

Leave this morning for Montreal. Major attractions on the afternoon sightseeing include: once walled Old Montreal, Notre Dame Church, the Seminary of St. Sulpice -built by the first missionary settlers, the Old Harbor and modern Montreal. Overnight at the Holiday Inn Centre Ville.

MONTREAL - OTTAWA

Day 8, October 10, Monday

West along the Ottawa River to Canada's capital. Our included sightseeing of Ottawa begins on Parliament Hill with its creste of Gothic Buildings and guard of red-coated Mounties; then Rideau Canal and its falls; the hexagonal National Arts Center, the parks and gardens, and stately residences and embassies. All contrast with the backwoods lumber town of little over a century ago. Spend the night at the Novotel Ottawa.

OTTAWA - TORONTO

Day 9, October 11, Tuesday

Trace the Rideau Canal south to the amazing 1,000 Islands National Park, with vistas of it along the St. Lawrence shore and myriad wooded islands around which the 2,000-mile St. Lawrence Seaway threads its way. After stopping in Gananoque for an hour boat ride on the Seaway, continue to Toronto where we overnight at the Primrose Hotel.

TORONTO - NIAGARA

Day 10, October 12, Wednesday

The clam-shell blocks of New City Hall, the downtown banking district (a cluster of competing skyscrapers), and the stunning CN Tower more than one-third of a mile high all set Toronto's exciting architectural pace. All this to be seen on the included morning city tour. Continue southeast along the lake shore and through rich farmlands of Ontario to Niagara Falls. Stop at various view points to see and hear the sound and fury of the falls; then take an included boat trip on the "Maid of the Mist" — highly recommended for amazing close-ups at the base of the thundering falls. Tonight return to see the Falls illuminated by the powerful lights. Overnight at the Holiday Inn by the Falls.

NIAGARA FALLS - CORNING – LAKE HARMONY

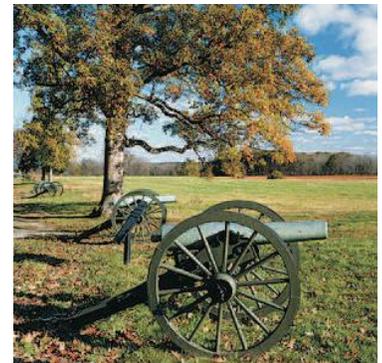

Day 11, October 13, Thursday

This morning continue to Corning to visit the famous Corning Glass Center. Head south into Pennsylvania to Lake Harmony where we overnight at the Pocono Ramada Inn.

LAKE HARMONY - HERSHEY - LANCASTER

Day 12, October 14, Friday

Follow the Susquehanna River through the Appalachian Mountains and the old Pennsylvania Farm country. Through Harrisburg, the state capital, and on to "Chocolate-town U.S.A." to visit Milton Hershey's amazing Chocolate World. Overnight in Lancaster at the Howard Johnson's.

LANCASTER - WASHINGTON, D.C.

Day 13, October 15, Saturday

Lancaster County is the home of the religious Amish and Mennonite sects. This morning enjoy a stop at an Amish farm where faith and tradition forbid the use of electricity or telephones in the home and promote a distinctive style of dress, family life and the use of horse-drawn buggies in place of motor vehicles. Then to Gettysburg Visitors Center before Washington, D.C. for two nights at the Holiday Inn Capitol.

WASHINGTON D.C.

Day 14, October 16, Sunday

With your local driver/guide take a tour of the city passing the White House, Capitol Hill and the Lincoln Memorial. Next, across the Potomac River to see the American heroes graves, including John F. Kennedy and his brother Robert in the beautiful Arlington Cemetery. Drive back to the Capitol where you will be dropped off to visit the museums of the Smithsonian.

++ Optional return to Honolulu or Las Vegas.

WASHINGTON D.C. - LAS VEGAS

Day 15, October 17, Monday

Morning is free until your afternoon departure to Las Vegas.

Arrive Las Vegas where we stay three nights at the Fremont Hotel or similar. Your Hawaii Package includes meal credits (for adults only).

LAS VEGAS

Days 16-17, October 18-19, Tue-Wed

Two days at leisure to enjoy the excitement of Las Vegas where we will discover the action of the casinos and experience the electrifying night life featuring some of the biggest names in show business.

LAS VEGAS - HONOLULU

Day 18, October 20, Thursday

Our tour ends today as we leave Las Vegas for Honolulu via Delta Airlines.
